1. History

Rotorua Camera Club was founded in 1950 and has been affiliated to the Photographic Society of New Zealand (PSNZ) since its inception in 1953.

We have a vibrant and dynamic club, attracting photographers of all ages, interests and experience. Inspiration comes from sharing work and ideas through discussion and assessment in a non-threatening environment. We have workshops and courses, which can include everything from basic camera and compositional techniques. With digital photography almost exclusively replacing film these days, we also cover digital editing and creative exploration.

We arrange regular evaluation opportunities where Images are presented and assessments reviewed under a grading system. We also hold regular field trips where we work together to improve our photography. New members are welcome to attend these and work with more experienced photographers.

Our vision for the next five years includes increasing membership within all grades; having members achieve higher levels of competency and skill; and having more members achieve Photographic Society of New Zealand (PSNZ) qualifications and Honours awards.

2. Club Contacts

Club meetings are held at the Ngongotaha Rugby League Clubrooms, Neil Hunt Park, Rotorua on the first Wednesday of each month at 7pm.

Our Facebook page has been set up as a 'Forum' for Rotorua Camera Club financial members to share information, ask questions, seek critique on photos, sell camera gear, share ideas and just general discussion on photography.

3. Grading

Members are graded into three grades - Novice, Intermediate and Advanced.

Grading was introduced to encourage members to become confident within their own level of competency and to encourage growth in skill over time.

When a new member becomes financial a club number and grading is allocated.

The initial grading for all new members is Novice. If a member is from another Club or has experience above Novice grade they may request to be placed in a higher grade. The committee will review his/her portfolio (6 to 10 images) and increase the grading accordingly. An initial grading will only be increased to Intermediate unless the member has attained their PSNZ Honours (or overseas equivalent).

Novice

Novice grade is for members learning the basics of photography with limited photographic skills.

This grade provides an avenue for beginners to offer their work for helpful comments and suggestions, without feeling threatened by the level of critique or the technical comments given to the higher grades.

Some technical errors are tolerated, and the critique is generally positive.

All work submitted in both Set Subject and Open categories will be judged as Acceptance, Merit, Highly Commended, or Honours for each entry in each section.

When a member has achieved a total of five Honours they will progress immediately to the Intermediate grade. The member will be notified by the Competition Secretary when this occurs.

All competition points are retained in the Novice grade, and credited at the end of the year for the purpose of the aggregate points award within that grade.

Intermediate

An Intermediate grade member must show greater understanding of the basics of photography and be generally producing work that shows competency in exposure, focus and composition.

The evaluation is more critically assessed. If work submitted is not to the accepted standard it may be deemed Not Accepted by the judge.

When a member has achieved a total of five Honours in the Intermediate grade they will progress immediately to the Advanced grade. The member will be notified by the Competition Secretary when this occurs.

All competition points are retained in the intermediate grade, and credited at the end of the year for the purpose of the aggregate points award within that grade.

Advanced

An Advanced grade member will be encouraged to:

- Participate at a national level
- Expand on all aspects of photography
- Learn the techniques of critiquing work, so they can take part in the process of evaluating or judging, and
- Apply for PSNZ Honours (Licentiate or Associateship)

To encourage members' ongoing submissions and to improve photography, Advanced Achievement Levels will be awarded as Honours are achieved as per table below.

To progress through the grades the following table shows the number of Honour Awards required within each grade. These honour awards are attained through submission of images in the monthly evaluations.

GRADE PROGRESSION BY HONOURS ACHIEVEMENTS
Novice	0
Intermediate	5
Advanced	5
Advanced - Bronze	10
Advanced - Silver	15
Advanced - Gold	20
Advanced - Platinum	25
Advanced - Diamond	30

4. Club Competitions & Evaluations

The club holds regular evaluations and competitions to provide opportunity for members to participate, obtain impartial feedback, broaden techniques and generally improve photographic skills. This also provides the opportunity to progress through the Club's grading system.

- Regular evaluations (monthly March to November)
- Mid Year Competitions
- End of Year Competitions

Members are encouraged to participate with a view to increasing skill levels and advancing towards National competitions and Honours within the Photographic Society of New Zealand.

Club members must be financial at the time of entry.

Judging

The Competition Secretary will appoint the judges for the evaluations and competitions.

Submissions, as a rule, are sent for judging and comment to experienced external judges or professional photographers. The judges appointed will be appropriately qualified and hold either a PSNZ judging accreditation, professional photographic industry experience or qualifications.

Occasionally submissions may be judged by a panel appointed within the Club.

Judges are encouraged to provide fair criticism which should be direct and be designed to encourage improvement and excellence.

5. Monthly Evaluations

George Bennett Award

This Award is for the best PORTFOLIO of SIX prints or projected images.

The portfolio does not have to follow a theme, but must demonstrate the proficiency of the photographer. The portfolio must exhibit sound basic technical ability (focus and exposure), along with good compositional skills and awareness of lighting.

Although the portfolio must demonstrate all-round competence, the six images should sit together as a pleasing unit, without any one image standing out as either below or above the standard of the other.

The viewer's eye should travel comfortably from one image to the next. This can be achieved by the use of colour, tone, composition or subject matter so that each image is in some way linked to the image that follows. Avoid sharp changes of colour or intensity that may prevent one image leading naturally to the next.

Proficiency is best demonstrated by

- a variety of subject matter (portrait, landscape, nature etc)
- a variety of lens choice (close up, wide angle, zoom etc)
- a variety of viewpoint
- a variety of lighting etc

Digital Portfolio Entries

When submitting a digital portfolio, the title of each image should be numbered in the preferred order of viewing, followed by the title, e.g.

1_Rainbows End_SET OF SIX _Membership number

2_Sky Tower_SET OF SIX _Membership number

3_Mission Bay_SET OF SIX _Membership number....

Prints Portfolio Entries

Refer also to guidelines for presenting prints

Number the prints on the reverse side from 1 to 6, in the order to which they are to be shown, followed by the title and membership number. Eg 1_Title_Membership No.

Provide a sketch or layout of the way in which the prints are to be displayed.

The Scott Cup was donated by Tracy Scott to encourage members to enter the national competitions and salons. The member with the highest number of achievements in the national competitions and salons will win the Scott Cup. The Scott Cup runs from the first of January to the last club meeting in December.

Entries that do not meet the correct presentation criteria will not be accepted.
